About Photosensitive Seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms including: lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

Other Important Health and Safety Information

The Xbox video game system documentation contains important safety and health information that you should read and understand before using this software.

Avoid Damage to Your Television

Do not use with certain televisions. Some televisions, especially front- or rear-projection types, can be damaged if any video games, including Xbox games, are played on them. Static images presented during the normal course of game play may "burn in" to the screen, causing a permanent shadow of the static image to appear at all times, even when video games are not being played. Similar damage may occur from static images created when placing a video game on hold or pause. Consult your television owner's manual to determine if video games can be safely played on your set. If you are unable to find this information in the owner's manual, contact your television dealer or the manufacturer to determine if video games can be played on your set.

Unauthorized copying, reverse engineering, transmission, public performance, rental, pay for play, or circumvention of copy protection is strictly prohibited.

For use only with Xbox video game systems with "NTSC."

COMPLETE CONTROLS

So Springfield isn't exactly Capital City. It's still pretty big and pretty intimidating to try to find your way around, especially if you don't know how to drive. So take just a few seconds to learn these controls and you'll be hauling down Main Street like a snake on Whacking Day.

GAME CONTROLS

The following are default gameplay controls. You may also use an alternate controller configuration (► Controls on p. 17).

- If you're like Homer, you love DONUTS! To pull off this fancy-pants driving move, hold down the hand brake, press the D-pad left or right, then hit the gas. You can spin around and around in one spot until you're dizzy enough to puke, or use this move to turn around in a hurry.
- To pick up/drop off passengers, come to a complete stop in the lit area.

INTRODUCTION

Springfield. City on the move. Or is it? This once-bustling burb has been brought to a stand-still by the malignant magnate, C. Montgomery Burns. The man who owns the nuclear power plant has bought out the Springfield Transit Corporation and is sapping the billfold of every Johnny Commuter and Janie Buspass in this fair town. The dastardly devil has even converted the buses to nuclear power and given his drivers free reign to wreak havoc on this hamlet's otherwise sleepy streets.

But look out, Mr. Burns—the good people of Springfield are rising up to take on your transportation tyranny. They're arming themselves with their cars and braving the bumper-to-bumper mayhem to provide shuttle service for the stranded citizenry. Will these chivalrous chauffeurs, these vigilante valets bring down Montgomery's mass transit monopoly? Or will evil keep its grip on the wheel? Only time will tell...

FEATURES

- ◆ Interact with dozens of The Simpsons™ characters as you drive them around Springfield.
- ◆ Tons of landmarks in six themed neighborhoods, in a go-anywhere Springfield.
- ◆ A cool bonus system that lets you choose what to unlock.
- ◆ Exciting two-player Head to Head mode with split-screen action.
- ◆ Toon Renderer™ technology provides that authentic look of The Simpsons™.
- ◆ Take shortcuts and jumps through city, hills, mountains, and forests.
- ◆ Busy environments packed with traffic and pedestrians.
- ◆ Original voice-over talent from The Simpsons™.
- ◆ Simple, intuitive menus to get you on the road fast.

SETTING UP THE GAME

Would you say you have a Homer-like personality, or are you more of a Lisa? Do you want to be like Snake and tear through town inflicting maximum destruction, or do you subscribe to the Ned Flanders school of defensive driving? Whatever your style, The Simpsons™ Road Rage has more than enough options and game modes to match it.

MAIN MENU

From the Main menu, you can pick your game mode or access the Options screen to adjust your game settings. So pick a mode and get the lead out, man!

Note: Default options are listed in bold in this manual.

ROAD RAGE MODE

The pressure is on. In Road Rage mode, the light turns green and your timer starts ticking. Every time you pick up a passenger, you get a little more time added. You can add even more time by dropping the passengers off ahead of schedule. The clock is ticking, so get going! All of Springfield is counting on you! (Except Mr. Burns, of course.)

- ◆ To start a Road Rage mode game, select ROAD RAGE from the Main menu. The Player 1 Driver screen appears.

PLAYER 1 DRIVER SCREEN

This could be the most difficult decision you'll ever have to make. Only the five representatives of the Simpsons clan—Homer, Marge, Bart, Lisa, and Grampa—are available to you at first. Gain access to the rest of the characters by unlocking their vehicles in Road Rage mode (► Progress Screen on p. 12).

- Press ○ to highlight a character and press A to select. The Starting Location screen appears.
- ◆ To watch a short animation of any unlocked character, leave the character highlighted for a moment.

STARTING LOCATION SCREEN

This could be the second most difficult decision you'll ever have to make. Actually, the decision is easy at first—Evergreen Terrace is your only choice until you unlock the others. But boy oh boy, once you get them unlocked, you can do more exploring than Jebediah Springfield.

- Press ○ / ↓ to highlight a location and press A to select. Your game begins.
- ◆ To view a few scenes from any unlocked neighborhood, leave the starting location highlighted for a moment.
- ◆ For descriptions of the different locations, ► Locations on p. 18.

PLAYING THE GAME

"I pity those poor suckers on the freeway. Gas break honk. Gas break honk. Honk honk punch..." Well, Homer, you ain't seen nothing 'til you've seen a whole town of self-styled chauffeurs. With people like Bart and Barney behind the wheel, the streets have never been more dangerous.

But it's all for a good cause: To earn $1,000,000 to buy back the transit system from Montgomery Burns and save the town from his evil ways. So tank up, buckle your seat belt, and get ready for some serious Road Rage!

GAME SCREEN

Here's what you do: Cruise through town. When you see someone looking for a ride, stop near them inside the blue light dome to pick them up. They tell you where they want to go, and you get them there as fast as your four little wheels can carry you.

- ◆ The Trip Timer starts flashing red when you have less than ten seconds left.
- ◆ If you do not reach your destination before the Trip Timer runs out, the passenger abandons your car, no matter where you are or how fast you're going!
- ◆ Drop-off areas are marked by golden light.

AREA MAP

The area map can prove to be your bestest buddy in the whole wide world. Check this map to see where your destination is relative to where you are.

EA TIP: The shortest route to your destination isn't always the most obvious one—remember to look for those short cuts!

EARNING TIME AND MONEY

Besides just picking up passengers and getting them to their destinations on time, there are a lot of other ways to add time to your clock and money to your wallet. For instance, every second that's left on your timer after completing a trip earns you some bonus cash. Remember what you're here for—to earn money to buy back the transit system!

- ◆ The higher the difficulty level (► Game Difficulty on p. 17), the more money you get for your leftover time (but you start with less time on the clock, so it's tougher to earn those bonus bucks).
- ◆ When your Trip Timer expires and your passenger bails out, you still get to keep the money you've earned on that trip so far.

MATT GROENING

FAST TRIPS

If you complete a trip right when the Trip Timer runs out, you get to keep the whole fare, but don't expect a big tip. A normal-timed run will get you a decent gratuity. Get to your destination in a hurry to earn that Homer-size tip.

SLOW TRIP From 0% up to 20% of the Trip Timer left

NORMAL TRIP From 21% up to 35% of the Trip Timer left

FAST TRIP At least 36% of the Trip Timer left

ROAD RAGE TRIPS AND SAFE TRIPS

Earn a $1000 bonus every time you complete a Road Rage Trip, or $250 for a Safe Trip. If you ask me, Destructive Trips are more fun. So, as Marge says, "It's time we opened up a can of Whoop-Tushie on this situation!"

◆ If you see the words "Avoid traffic for bonus" when you pick up a passenger, you are eligible to earn a Safe Trip bonus. "Destroy stuff for bonus" means you can go for a Road Rage Trip.

■ To complete a Road Rage Trip, you must cause a lot of damage to Springfield on the way to your destination.

◆ When you have caused enough destruction to make it a Road Rage Trip, your time bonus flashes on the screen.

■ To complete a Safe Trip, you must achieve a Fast Trip rating without hitting more than two vehicles on the way.

TRANSIT DESTRUCTION

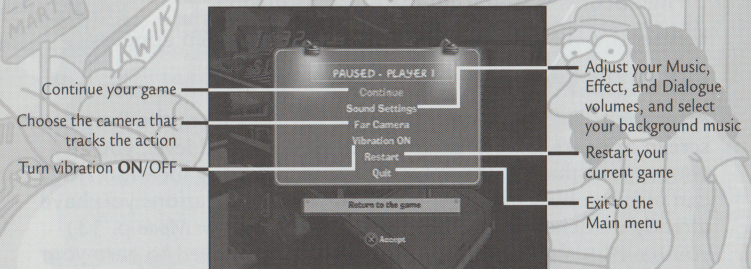

Never forget who the enemy is. You can earn time bonuses by smashing those new symbols of Mr. Burns' municipal imperialism, the Springfield Transit Corporation bus stops. Just make sure you whack 'em real good—just brushing them lightly won't earn you a bonus.

PAUSE MENU

If all the jumping and the crashing and the tire spinning gets to be too much, just pause the game and find your happy place.

■ Press START to access the Pause menu.

END OF GAME

The game must end sometime, and when it does, do not despair—Springfield will always be with you.

RATING SCREEN

If you didn't quite make it into the top ten all time scores, you still can receive judgement of your performance at the Rating screen. Just hope you don't get here and see a big, fat "Loser" rating. That'd just be sad.

The ratings are as follows:

$0	Loser
$1-$999	Grandma
$1,000-$2,999	Timid
$3,000-$4,999	Destructive
$5,000-$6,999	Reckless
$7,000-$9,999	Insane
$10,000-$12,499	Speed Freak
$12,500-$14,999	Gazelle
$15,000+	Madman

◆ After the Rating screen, the High Score screen appears.

HIGH SCORE SCREEN

After you receive your rating, you can see how you measure up to those Road Ragers who have come before you. If you drove well enough and did Springfield proud, you have the great honor of immortalizing your initials for all time—or at least until the next hotdog comes along and knocks you off the charts.

- ◆ Even if you didn't crack the top ten, you can always view the High Scores screen from the Options menu.
- ◆ After the High Score screen, the Progress screen appears.

PROGRESS SCREEN

After the High Score screen and the Rating screen, the Progress screen appears. If you reached your next Reward level, you can choose to unlock a new vehicle or a new starting location. You can also see how many vehicles and starting locations you have already unlocked, how many Missions (► Mission Mode p. 13) you have finished, and how much money you need to earn your next reward.

- ◆ Unlock your first Reward for a measly $1,000! Successive Reward levels are as follows: $10K ($10,000), $30K, $50K, $75K, $100K, $125K, $150K, $200K, $250K, $300K, and then every $100K until you finish the game at $1,000,000.
- ◆ After you choose your reward, the Save Game screen appears if you have not already saved your game. If you have previously saved your game, the game auto-saves.

SAVE GAME SCREEN

The Save Game screen lets you save your game's progress so all of your hard work chauffeuring around a bunch of ingrates won't go to waste. You can choose to save your game to the Xbox console or to the Xbox memory unit (MU), or, if your performance was just plain embarrassing, you can choose not to save your game at all.

NOTE: If you have previously saved your game, the game auto-saves.

NOTE: If you enter the same name for your saved game as a previously-saved game, you are prompted to overwrite that previously-saved game.

- ◆ For more information on Saving Games, (► Saving and Loading on p. 22).
- ◆ After the Save Game screen, the Main menu appears.

OTHER GAME MODES

Is all that pressure of fighting the clock in Road Rage mode frazzling your nerves? Try one of these other game modes for a whole new challenge.

SUNDAY DRIVE

In Sunday Drive, Springfield is your oyster. No need to pick up passengers, no clock ticking down to your ultimate doom—you're free to roam your lovely hometown at your leisure.

NOTE: You cannot earn fares in Sunday Drive mode.

- To start a Sunday Drive, choose SUNDAY DRIVE from the Main menu.
- To end your Sunday Drive, press  to access the Pause menu and choose QUIT.

- ◆ As in Road Rage mode, you can only choose unlocked vehicles and starting locations in Sunday Drive mode.

EA TIP: In Sunday Drive mode, you can take the time to learn all the little side alleys and shortcuts that can speed you along to your destination.

MISSION MODE

Forget about earning fares for a while and take on one of these ten missions. In each mission you are given a specific task and a limited amount of time in which to complete it. They're all different, but they all have one thing in common—they require some serious Road Rage!

WILLIE'S PAPER SHREDDER

The Springfield Shopper published one anti-Burns piece too many. So what does Mr. Burns do? He buys the newspaper and turns it into a pro-transit pulpit. Groundskeeper Willie won't let this stand. He's out to destroy every Springfield Shopper box he can. Can he get twelve of them before time runs out?

HOMER ON THE RUN

It's a great day for a ballgame. The lure of baking in the sun, drinking beer and eating hotdogs is too much for Homer to pass up, so he decides to play hooky from the Nuclear Power Plant. Unfortunately for him, some snitch tells Mr. Burns, and now Bart has to sneak Homer back to work before Mr. Burns spots them. If Burns manages to hit the Honor Roller, it's game over for Homer.

BARNEY'S RAGE

Barney, that usually loveable lush, is flying off the handle for no apparent reason. The hapless targets of his temper are Capital City's cute and cuddly mascots. The only thing that will pacify Barney's fury is knocking over twelve mascots, and knocking them over fast.

OTTO'S DRIVING TEST

"The only thing I was ever good at was driving a bus, and now 'the Man' says I need a piece of paper to do that!" To get that paper, Otto has to pass his driving test. But this is no ordinary driving test. To pass this one, Otto has to knock over fifteen light posts at the mini-mall before time runs out. Fire it up, Otto!

SNAKE'S DAY OFF

Snake has served his time and is out on parole (again). Eager to show he can be a contributing member of society, he sets out to wreak havoc at the Nuclear Power Plant. His target is the nuclear waste that Mr. Burns is using to fuel his bus fleet. If Snake can topple twenty cans of waste before time runs out, who knows, maybe they'll give him the key to the city!

THEY'LL NEVER TAKE ME ALIVE

Getting old is tough on poor Grampa. Sometimes he can't even remember his own first name, and has to give himself a reminder: "Whenever I'm confused, I just check my underwear." Once he thought there were wolves after him. Now it's garbage cans. But times like these bring out the Flying Hellfish in him. He'll take out twelve of those dastardly cans in no time flat or his name isn't—um, hold on...Abe Simpson!

SAVE THE HOVERCAR

The ingenious Professor Frink has done it again! His ultra-fuel-efficient hovercar could prove the greatest boon to mankind since the easy-squeeze toothpaste tube. Of course, Mr. Burns can't let that happen. He's out to stop Professor Frink by hook or by crook. If Frink and Mayor Quimby can outrun the clock and Mr. Burns to reach City Hall, they're home free.

NOT THE TREES

If you want to tick off Lisa Simpson, mess with the environment. Just be prepared to pay the consequences. The logging company that is clear-cutting Redwood Forest is about to find that out the hard way. Lisa is giving a hoot—by trying to ram 24 cut logs (conveniently stacked in three-log piles) before time expires.

KRUSTY'S ESCAPE

Being a clown isn't all fun and games, especially when you're Springfield's biggest TV star. The tourists are hounding Krusty relentlessly, and it's your job to get him to the sanctuary of his home. To throw the vultures off his trail, you must hit fifteen street signs that point the way to Krusty's house. That should give 'em something else to gawk at!

BURNS' ARENA

David vs. Goliath. Godzilla vs. Rodan. Simpson vs. Burns. Homer and Monty square off in Mr. Burns' garden. Homer is a man with a mission: to destroy twenty pieces of Mr. Burns' precious statues (each statue consists of at least two pieces). Mr. Burns has a simpler mission: to stop Homer. Only one of them can succeed. Ho-mer! Ho-mer! Ho-mer!

HEAD TO HEAD

Call your friend out for a game of duelin' Road Ragers. Two players compete for $1,000 fares mano-a-mano until one player reaches the target money total. Stealing passengers is allowed, so watch your back when playing Head to Head!

To play a Head to Head game:

1. From the Main menu, select HEAD TO HEAD. The Game Length screen appears.
 2. Select $5,000, $10,000, or $15,000 (this is your target earnings level for the game). The Starting Location screen appears.
 3. Choose from four Starting Locations. The game begins.
 - ◆ As in Road Rage mode, the only starting location initially available is Evergreen Terrace. You must unlock the others (► Locations on p. 18 and Progress Screen on p. 12).
 4. Both you and your opponent start from the same location and compete for a single passenger, represented by a green circle on the Area Map (► Area Map on p. 9).
 - ◆ Even if your opponent gets to the passenger before you, fret not! Just give your nemesis a good bump and the passenger is now yours!
- NOTE: There are no partial fares in Head to Head mode. The player who delivers the passenger to his/her destination gets the whole $1,000 fare.
5. Once you or your opponent drops off the passenger, a new passenger appears somewhere in the area and the race is on again!
 6. The game continues until somebody reaches the target earnings level.

MATT GROENING

OPTIONS

You want options? The Simpsons Road Rage has more options than the Comic Book Guy has chins. More options than Apu's laundry has pooppy diapers. More options than a Kwik-E-Mart hotdog has hairs. More options than—well, you get the picture.

LOAD GAME

Load your masterpiece-in-progress (► Saving and Loading on p. 22).

CONTROLS

Choose between two different controller configurations. For default controls, ► Complete Controls on p. 4.

GAME DIFFICULTY

Choose between EASY, MEDIUM, and HARD difficulty levels. Your timer starts at 75 seconds at Easy difficulty level, 50 seconds at Medium, and 40 at Hard. However, the harder the difficulty, the more money you earn for time left on your clock at the end of your trip.

See just who's responsible for all this madness.

LOCATIONS

Shelbyville thinks it's so hot. Well you know what? It's not. Springfield has everything that Shelbyville does, and a whole lot more. Well, OK, Springfield doesn't have yellow fire hydrants like Shelbyville. And Shelbyville Falls is pretty cool. But Springfield still rules! If you don't believe me, drive around and have a look for yourself.

- ◆ The only starting location initially available is Evergreen Terrace. You must unlock the others (► Progress Screen on p. 12).

EVERGREEN TERRACE

Homer calls Evergreen Terrace “the swankiest street in the classiest part of Pressboard Estates,” and it'd be hard to argue with him. It has all the ingredients for good, wholesome family living: Springfield Elementary School, Springfield Community Church, Springfield Retirement Castle. Stop in for a quick bite at Krusty Burger, or pick up some supplies at the Kwik-E-Mart for a savory home-cooked meal. This is what small-town living's all about.

MATT GROENING

ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT

Located on a seedy side-street just a couple blocks from the heart of the Entertainment District, Moe's Tavern has everything a local watering hole should have: beer and barstools. If food is what you're after, stop in for all-you-can-eat seafood at the nearby Rusty Barnacle, or go up-scale at Planet Hype. Then catch a movie at the Springfield Googolplex or the Aztec theater. But the entertainment doesn't end there! Take a tour of the Duff Brewery, get in some hot mini-golf action at Sir Putt-A-Lots, or play ten frames at Barney's Bowl-A-Rama. Yes, Springfield has it all.

SPRINGFIELD DAM

The original Springfield Dam was just a shoddy, hollow thing, constructed by the evil Cecil Terwilliger, who wanted to blow it up and drown the city. Thanks to Bart, Lisa, and his own brother, Sideshow Bob, he failed, but the flimsy dam collapsed anyway. The hearty people of Springfield rallied, and the new dam stands as a symbol of the town's pride and resiliency. Take some time to explore it and its scenic environs, including Mayor Quimby's Mansion, Kamp Krusty, and Rancho Relaxo. Steer clear of the Stonecutter's Lodge, though—there always seems to be strange things afoot around there.

NUCLEAR POWER PLANT

Can you feel it? That tingling in your bones? Well, yes, that's partly because of the radiation, but mainly it's because you're in Burns territory now! The Springfield Nuclear Power Plant dominates the landscape here, from its main office to its giant turbines to the cut-off valve that Homer plugged with his ample frame, thus averting a nuclear melt down. And then there's the fuel rod and nuclear waste storage areas. Is it me, or does the Springfield Isotopes baseball field (property of C. Montgomery Burns) seem to be just a bit too green? Don't linger in this area too long, or you could end up with a genetic "enhancement" like good ol' Blinky the three-eyed fish.

DOWNTOWN

Perhaps no song has captured the spirit of downtown Springfield better than "Springfield, Springfield" by Bart Simpson and Milhouse Van Houten: "Springfield, Springfield, it's a hell of a town: The schoolyard's up and the shopping mall's down. The stray dogs go to the animal pound." Besides the security of having the Police station nearby, downtown Springfield also has some good shopping—stop by the Android's Dungeon for the latest issue of Radioactive Man, or get some genuine WWII-era weaponry at Herman's Military Antiques. Look out, 5th Avenue!

SPRINGFIELD MOUNTAINS

Have you had it up to here with all the crazy hustle and bustle of the city? Then head for the beauty and serenity of the Springfield Mountains! Take in sweeping, panoramic views of downtown Springfield while cruising with your sweetie to Inspiration Point. The air is crisper and cleaner up here, although you may notice a foul stench when you get to the peak—that's where Mr. Burns has his mansion. From there, it's all downhill to the Springfield Gorge. Better get up some good speed if you're going to try to jump it!

SAVING AND LOADING

You've been behind the wheel for hours, driving tirelessly in your quest to stop Burns. You've been putting off the inevitable for the last 45 minutes at least. Finally, the call of nature is too loud to ignore. If you don't want to lose all that hard-earned cash while you powder your nose, you'd best save your game.

NOTE: Never insert or remove an MU when loading or saving files.

NOTE: An MU will hold up to 200 blocks of memory.

LOADING AND DELETING FILES

To load a game:

1. When you launch The Simpsons™ Road Rage, the Load Game screen appears.
 - You can also access the Load Game screen from the Options menu.
2. Highlight the game you wish to load and press A. The game loads and the Main menu screen appears.
 - Press X to delete a file from your MU.

LIMITED 90-DAY WARRANTY

ELECTRONIC ARTS LIMITED WARRANTY

Electronic Arts warrants to the original purchaser of this product that the recording medium on which the software program(s) are recorded (the "Recording Medium") and the documentation that is included with this product (the "Manual") are free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of 90 days from the date of purchase. If the Recording Medium or the Manual is found to be defective within 90 days from the date of purchase, Electronic Arts agrees to replace the Recording Medium or Manual free of charge upon receipt of the Recording Medium or Manual at its service center, postage paid, with proof of purchase. This warranty is limited to the Recording Medium containing the software program and the Manual that were originally provided by Electronic Arts. This warranty shall not be applicable and shall be void if, in the judgment of Electronic Arts, the defect has arisen through abuse, mistreatment or neglect.

This limited warranty is in lieu of all other warranties, whether oral or written, express or implied, including any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, and no other representation of any nature shall be binding on or obligate Electronic Arts. If any such warranties are incapable of exclusion, then such warranties applicable to this product, including implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, are limited to the 90-day period described above. In no event will Electronic Arts be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages resulting from possession, use or malfunction of this Electronic Arts product, including damage to property, and to the extent permitted by law, damages for personal injury, even if Electronic Arts has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Some states do not allow limitation as to how long an implied warranty lasts and/or exclusions or limitation of incidental or consequential damages so the above limitations and/or exclusion of liability may not apply to you. In such jurisdictions, the Electronic Arts' liability shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by law. This warranty gives you specific rights. You may also have other rights that vary from state to state.
